Did you know that most insurance settlements leave money on the table?

That's because insurance companies aren't your best friend. When your commercial property or high-end residential home has an insurance claim, it only makes sense to have an expert like Ayzertech Public Adjusters represent your interests. You wouldn't go to court without a lawyer, so why take a chance on your insurance claim?

In this together:

We operate on a contingency fee basis, so we only get paid when you do.

Creative Solutions:

We think out of the box, stay ahead of policy changes, and negotiate strongly on your behalf.

Call us first:

What you say to your insurance company can impact your claim. We will gladly discuss your claim free of charge to help determine if we can be of assistance.
